Chinese Cousul-General Fears Uncle Sam Will Bar His Countrymen Out.

(By Telegraph.)

HAVANA, July 11—The Chinese consul-general has filed a strong objection to the decision of Governor General Brooke that commercial treaties between Spain and other foreign countries. tries do not apply to Cuba, as was for-merly the case, and that future treaty arrangements must be made with the United States in the name of Cuba. The ground of his objection is his feer of Cuba. The ground of his objection is his fear of emigration restrictions. Under the old regime Chinamen were admitted and immigration encouraged, and they are now to be found in all parts of the island, employed principally as house servants, though many work on the plantations and in sugar mills where they have proved excellent help. In the opinion of the Chinese consul general the arrangement of standing ought not to be disturbed, especially as Cuba is so much in need of labor.

The most seriously injured were:
Samuel Lundon, hadly burned about the head, hands, arms and body.

Mrs. Bessie Bossick, 35 years old, badly burned about the face and body.

Ten others were overcome by small.

Ten others were overcome by smoke or are suffering from burns.

The fire started in the apartments of Max Press, on the fourth floor, and when discovered had made strong headway. The fourth floor families escaped down the stairway in their night clothes. night clothes.

On the fifth floor lived the Basel on the first floor lived the Basch and Silber families, who escaped to the roof and thence were conveyed to a neighboring house. Little Rachel Silber was so badly burned that she died at the hospital a few hours later.

PUT KNOWLEDGE TO USE.

PUT KNOWLEDGE TO USE. The people taken down by the firemen were laid on the sidewalk and resuscitated according to the "first aid to the injured" rules which Dr., Janeway helped to teach the firemen some months ago. When the hospital ambulances came the surgeons said that some of the victims would have died had not the firemen helped them in this way.

The financial loss to tenants and building is $2,500.
